Principal’s Report

HSC Exams begin today starting with the English paper. I am sure there are a lot of nervous students this morning and I wish the best of luck to Paige Breust and all the students involved in the Riverina Access Partnership.

I would like to welcome Stuart Whytcross from Barellan to the Head Teacher Access Position relieving for Jean Dyason this term. Stuart has a diverse skill set and is also a past Riverina Access Program student.

I am looking forward to the ‘Amazing Race’ next Wednesday which has been organised by the students in the middle school enrichment program. It’s been great to meet with the organisers and assist plan the event. I have been impressed with how they have conducted themselves and communicated their intentions.

P&C meeting is on again this Tuesday night at 8.00pm. Look forward to catching up then.

Bye for now

Active After School
Hello and welcome back to term 4. This term is always a busy term with lots happening both in and outside of school. Usually there aren’t many for active after school due to swimming training, cricket training, dance practice etc etc.
So, we have decided to focus on more individual sports for this term. As you might appreciate it is hard to plan an activity without knowing roughly how many children will come each week. I am asking that if you are interested in coming to Active After School this term can you please fill in the expression of interest at the back of the newsletter. We are thinking of doing individual sports such as golf, archery, lawn bowls and ping pong, to name a few. Also, due to other commitments, the two days Active After School will be on this term are Tuesdays and Thursdays and we are hoping to start next week. We look forward to seeing as many children there as we can. All the Best.

Ariah Park to celebrate 10th Mary Gilmore Festival

- The Ariah Park Community will be celebrating its 10th Annual Mary Gilmore Festival next week from the 15th to the 19th October, 2014. It has been a lot of hard work for a small committee who have worked tirelessly to keep the village of Ariah Park on the map.

- They have been rewarded with the Festival having built up a good reputation that it is now an integral part of the Southern NSW Country Music Circuit, that starts with Parkes in early October, and then runs to Bedgerabong, Ariah Park, Rosewood, Leeton, Cowra and finishing up with Temora on November 21-23, 2014.

- This year’s Country Music Festival on Saturday, 18th October, will bring back long time favourites Tom Maxwell, and Peter Coad and the Coad Sisters, who are always well followed at Tamworth and other top Country Music venues. They will be supported by Tom and Patsy Routledge, Terry Simpson and Runaway Dixie.

- The Country Music will start on Wednesday, 15th October with a Singalong and Sausage Sizzle at the Showground Camping Area, which will be led this year by John and Christine Smith.

- This will be followed on Thursday Night with show at the Recreation Ground Camping Area, and other budding artists are welcome to join in.

- Friday night, the 17th October, will be the Walk Up Artist Night, which will be held in the main pavilion at the Showground. John Smith will again be the compere and will be welcoming all comers. It is whispered we have a new act from Ariah Park trying their hand this year! Corky’s Catering from Beckom will be providing a roast meal for $15, and it is BYO Drinks.

- On Saturday Morning, 18th at 8.00a.m., there will be a Poets Breakfast featuring the “Rhymer from Ryde”, Graeme Johnson, performing for the first time at Ariah Park. Bacon and Egg Rolls will be available for sale. Other local poets and local students will also be performing.

- The Country Music Festival will commence at 10.30a.m. and run all day till 6.00p.m. It will be held under the new shade structure at the Ariah Park Showground. Admission will be just $20 and $5 for students. Food and Drinks will be available for sale.

- The Country Music will carry over to the Street Markets in the Main Street on Sunday, 19th October. A Country Gospel Service will be held in the grounds of “The Peppers” and will commence with a warm up at 9.00a.m. and start by 9.30a.m., concluding by 10.30a.m. Peter Coad and the Coad Sisters will be leading the music.

- For more details about the Country Music contact Music Organiser, Patty Vearing on 6974 1020, or go to the Festival website www.ariahparkfestival.com
